1. To procure and provide topical information and intelligence concerning the petroleum industry and other subjects of interest to offshore energy underwriters and/or other concerned parties.

2. To participate in and assist the Education Committee in its educational efforts involving offshore energy risks.

3. To prepare and recommend to the Board of Directors, offshore energy forms, clauses and endorsements for AIMU members who may wish to use them.

4. To inform the market of loss prevention developments in the offshore energy field and to encourage the use of practices and procedures that might reduce losses.

5. To represent AIMU on offshore energy matters at IUMI and other similar domestic and foreign organizations.